

With MOM's help in 2010, we were able to speak to more than 12,000 teens and young adults through our suicide prevention assemblies for schools. Students were taught about the facts, myths, risk factors and warning signs of suicidal behavior, what to do in crisis, and how to develop positive coping skills. Thank you to MOM for helping us educate, reduce stigma, and change lives in our communities.

